FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 5, 186

The Union Party

It generally happens when a cause is popular, that designing and unprincipled men manage by bargains and coalitions to secure positions of prominence and control, and there they strive to become supreme dictators for the purpose of retaining their situations and governing the organization solely for selfish and corrupt purposes. Thus a faction is formed which almost inevitably brings the party in which it exists to ruin unless its power is resisted and broken up; for as soon as it is manifest that such leaders are using the honest masses for personal advantage only, caring nothing for patriotism or the public welfare, except so far as their gain is secured thereby, intelligent men become disgusted and refuse longer to allow themselves or a good cause to be made pack horses for official vagabonds and knaves.

The Union party in this State has we fear already suffered somewhat by reason of such management, and from present indications it is apparent to the majority of its best members, that earnest attempts will be made to control its organization, its patronage and even its principles by a faction mainly composed of a portion of the Federal office holders and their tools. Already the threat is announced that any Union man who does not acknowledge the supremacy of these crazy or corrupt demagogues shall be crushed by the weight of their vengeance and wrath, and although we may laugh at their impotent rage, well knowing that they will be foiled in their wicked plans, if these are thoroughly understood by the people, yet it is the part of prudence to be warned in time against all such devices. The organ of this faction is even now beginning to develop its plan of operations and we doubt not will speedily denounce all who dare to question its purity or to suggest that it is arranging schemes for the furtherance of its power for base purposes—schemes which shall promote the fortunes of father, son, brothers and brothers in law, and all the family, though all else be sacrificed. Union men throughout the State are anxious and alarmed. One writes: "most everything be yielded to these greedy cormorants, and is there nobody else in Oregon but they, who has any judgment or sense? For myself and the great bulk of Unionists in our county, we want to know whether we have any rights or are to be kicked for supposing that we have, and one thing is certain, if they do not act more decently, they will cause our defeat, for we are sick of their insufferable dictation. Last year was enough for us." Another, and one of the most loyal and sagacious men in the State, says in a letter before us, "I have endured some hard political reigns in Oregon, but it seems to me, that now threatened will be intolerable. If there is a spirit out of torment so ineffably base and mean, as to be without a fellow, the head of this new faction has it. I cannot conjure up language at this time expressive of my feelings towards so mean a head to a coalition so mean and contemptible."

From other sources, we have received similar suggestions, with earnest requests that every possible effort should be made at once to resist the sly and sneaking encroachments of these whining, snivelling demagogues. For these reasons we deem it a duty to express our urgent remonstrance against the designs of these men, and to call upon those who love the Union from patriotic motives, and not because by a dishonorable bargain, a position has been gained, where it pays to make loud professions of devotion to it, to watch and guard against these traitors at heart. And we warn them, that if they continue to contrive plans for personal gain, they will speedily find themselves covered with the indignation of all loyal men. We have abundant facts to justify the belief generally entertained as to their corrupt purposes, and though we should regret the necessity of making them more public, it assuredly will be done if the welfare of the Union party demands it. Of course, we expect abuse for even what we have already said, and much more in proportion as we may ventilate the acts of these men; but as to that, we are indifferent. We understand them and their programme, and we know that their ammunition is malice and their weapons are lies; for the good of the Union party, however, and for the sake of defeating its foes, we can cheerfully defy their slanders and labor for their overthrow.

FORTS AT THE MOUTH OF THE COLUMBIA.—The Mountaineer says Lieut. Elliott, the officer who has had charge of the construction of the harbor defenses of San Francisco, is under orders to repair to the mouth of the Columbia and superintend the erection of forts on either side of the river. It is understood that work on these fortifications will be commenced before the close of the current month, and that the forts will be pressed to an early completion. Looking to the contingency of a foreign war, it is well to place the American possessions on the North Pacific in a position for defense. The officer who has been placed in charge of the work bears a high reputation as an engineer, and under his direction we doubt not the entrance to our noble river will be sealed against a foreign foe.

Union League in Butteville

The citizens of this village and vicinity assembled on Saturday, May 30th, and having raised a flag-staff seventy five feet in height, the meeting was called to order, and the following pledge was read and subscribed by more than seventy of the voters of the precinct:

We pledge ourselves to an unconditional loyalty to the Government of the United States; to its unwavering support in efforts to crush the rebellion; and that we will spare no endeavors to maintain unimpaired the National unity, both in principle and territorial boundaries.

The primary object of this League is and shall be to unite together all loyal men of all trades and professions in a common union to maintain the power, glory and integrity of the nation.

The League was then organized by the election of Hon. John W. Grim, President; M. M. McKean, Secretary; [illegible] W. [illegible], Treasurer, and J. M. Murphy, G. A. [illegible] and J. Case, Executive Committee. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That abjuring for the present all partisan interests and former political ties, we offer ourselves in defence of the Union and Constitution, ready to rally as one man around the National Government and sustain it in every vigorous effort to crush rebellion from the land; and for this we pledge, in the spirit of our fathers, "our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

Resolved, That when the country is resisting a war waged for its dissolution and destruction, indifference is impossible to the patriot, and neutrality is cowardice, if not premeditated disloyalty.

Resolved, That to falter now in this great struggle between patriots and traitors, between democracy and aristocracy, would be to imperil the perpetuity of the Republic, and that we are now as heretofore [illegible] to all other things for the Union, the country and the flag, against all assailants, no matter who they are, whence they come, or with what power armed.

Resolved, That our army and navy by their many hard-fought battles in defence of our country, deserve the heartfelt thanks and confidence of a grateful people.

The Stars and Stripes were then raised amid the hearty cheers of the assembly; the ladies present waving their handkerchiefs, and earnestly joining in the applause.

The President delivered an excellent address, which convinced the audience that their State Senator was a true Union man under all circumstances. Messrs. McKean, Case, [illegible] Smith and Stuart followed in patriotic speeches, which were well received, when the meeting, after voting that the Oregonian be invited to publish a report of these proceedings, was adjourned.

Indian Treaty at the Lapwai Agency.

LAPWAI, Idaho Ter., May 30th 1863.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Since my last letter of the 28th, "Lawyer" has again addressed the Commissioners; his remarks I have taken down in full, but they are too lengthy to send you. He reviewed at great length the past history of the Nez Perces since they first saw the white man, since 1804, when Lewis and Clarke first visited the country, and recited the many instances where they had befriended the Americans. He then recited the grievances and complained much of the non-fulfillment of the treaty stipulations by the Government or its agents. He concluded by stating that the Nez Perces rejected the propositions of the Commissioners entirely and said: "You may come and dig our gold, you may come and view our country, but we will never, never sell our country." Many of the other Chiefs addressed the Commissioners, and questioned their authority to come and treat with them. They all agreed with "Lawyer" that they would never sell their country. Mr. Hale stated that if their authority was questioned, they (the Commissioners) had nothing further to say. Since this, "Lawyer" has intimated that so soon as Perrin Whitman arrives they will submit a proposition. I think there will be some sort of a treaty made yet. "Lawyer's" remarks were very ingenious. I am inclined to think it was a matter of policy in them to reject the proposals. The soldiers have torn down several squatters' houses near Lewiston. P. Whitman, the interpreter, has just arrived.

"LAWYER."

FROM WALLA WALLA.—Major Truax has been ordered to Lapwai—probably to take command of the post there. It is thought that Col. Steinberger will be returned to the command of Fort Walla Walla. Capt. Ma[illegible]'s company of W. T. Infantry has been ordered out on the old emigrant road across the Blue mountains to repair the road for the Government teams bound for the new post at Boise. Two companies under command of Major Lugenbeel, have left the Dalles to accompany the expedition to Boise. The first of the teams left the Dalles on Monday last. The balance of the supplies for Boise will be wagoned from Walla Walla.

Sixteen deserters from the regular army have given themselves up at Fort Walla Walla, under the President's proclamation of pardon. Of these, fourteen were volunteers in Colonel Steinberger's regiment.

The exodus of our citizens, for a time, for Boise still continues, and every week familiar faces are missed from our circle. This week the emigration in that direction has been unusually large.

Crow alias Powell and Marion C. Fair, who were captured at Umatilla week before last, have again succeeded in escaping.—Walla Walla Statesman.

INDIAN WAR IN IDAHO.—The Salt Lake News of May 13th, gives an account of the breaking out of an Indian war in Idaho Territory. A messenger had arrived from that Territory with a petition to Gen. Connor from the whites there asking for military protection. The News says the cause of the outbreak in Idaho has not transpired, but rumor says that the killing of one of the Indian chiefs by a white man in retaliation for some real or supposed injury made the red men mad, who in turn killed, as reported, a company of twenty-four white men who were out hunting after stock, whereupon the whites killed seventeen Indians who were in Bannock City. After writing the foregoing the News pretended to have received another version of the story, and lays the blame all upon the whites, some gamblers at Bannock City who had attacked an Indian chief named Snag, with a band [illegible] about fifteen [illegible]. In the attack it is said twenty-four whites and [illegible] Indians were killed.

A RARE CASE.—A deserter from the Secesh army went to Fort Walla Walla last week to give himself up under President Lincoln's proclamation of pardon to Union soldiers—restoring them to duty, without punishment except the forfeiture of pay and allowances during their absence. Upon inquiring of the individual where he deserted from, he replied: from the rebel army. The officers of the post concluded they had no use for him, and he retired, evidently dissatisfied that he could not be pardoned.—Walla Walla Statesman.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to May 31st.

ST. LOUIS, May 30th.—D. C. Scott, a well known river man, arrived last night, having left Young's Point on Sunday. He has been with Grant's army and says our forces are well prepared to repel any attack in the rear. They were in fine spirits and confident of capturing Vicksburg and its garrison. He says the attack upon the fortifications was not made by the entire line, as reported, but by a force under Gen. Blair, which assaulted the batteries and failed. Whenever the rebels attempted to plant their guns they were foiled by our sharpshooters. Our wounded were brought up rapidly to the river at Chickasaw Bayou, where there are sufficient boats to receive them. Our base of supplies at the Yazoo are sufficient and reinforcements are arriving.

NEW YORK, May 30th.—A special to the Commercial and Advertiser says no further exchange of prisoners will be allowed at present. The rebel authorities have taken the initiative step in this direction and all rebel troops on parole are placed under arrest for imprisonment. It is probable that negotiations will soon be resumed for continuance of exchange under liberal terms. Advices from front of the army of the Potomac to-day, state that the rebel army across the Rappahannock is very active. Their position at the river fords is decidedly offensive. Numbers of troops are massed in front of them. Their main picket line is as strong as ever, but the troops behind have been moved in another direction.

A Washington letter says that a balloon reconnoissance shows that the rebels are massing their troops near Chancellorsville and making preparations as though they expected to cross at U. S. Ford. Hooker is preparing for every emergency.

WASHINGTON, May 30th.—A gentleman who arrived to-night from the army of the Rappahannock says large columns of the enemy are in motion. They were traced yesterday by lines of dust in the rear of the river in front, while one body is moving southward. The preponderance of the mass is going in the direction of Kelly's Ford and Culpepper. The rebel infantry guards at Banks' and U. S. Fords have been considerably increased within the past day or two, and it is believed they are preparing for a demonstration somewhere on our lines.

NEW YORK, May 30th.—Exchange steady at 17[illegible]158. Gold 45[illegible]; Government stocks less active; Coupons 108@108[illegible].

THE DRAFT.—This much dreaded creature of the legislation of the last Congress will soon be upon us, and its stringent hand will shortly be laid upon the sovereign people of these States to enable a stronger and a more powerful blow to be struck at the rebellion. There has been a deal of murmuring among the unreasoning and the captious, because the draft has been delayed, but the only reason why it has not been made is that it takes a long time to put in readiness the vast machinery necessary for its successful and rapid working. The appointment of the large corps of officers necessary to enforce the draft has been a work of considerable laborious care, as the positions to be filled require men of peculiar faculty, and wisdom and discretion as well. The draft, however, will be very soon enforced, and the work of enrolling has already commenced in one State at least—that of Connecticut—and the draft will be made as fast as the newly appointed officials can get to work. Those States whose quotas are not yet full under the former calls for troops will first be called upon, and as the militia which has been turned into the field from some States is not credited to such States on account of volunteers, there will be a large amount of troops raised in this way before any general draft is made. Under this regulation the District of Columbia will come in for a draft, which has never been enforced there, though a number of militia companies have gone into the ranks from the District.

A work is about to be published, by command of the President, having the approval of the War Department, with the title of "Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Bureau of the Provost Marshal General." This, the order says, is published "for the benefit of all concerned, and that said regulations be strictly observed." There are ten hundred and thirty-one regulations in the book, to which are added twenty of the general army regulations and divers forms of blanks. By the Conscript Law there is appointed a Provost Marshal General, and in each Congressional District a Provost Marshal is also appointed. To these functionaries is now added an Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General for each State, who shall be a commissioned officer, and who shall serve as a means of communication with the subordinates and the Provost Marshal General, and it is ordered that "he shall communicate freely with the Governor and other State, county and town officers." Each Provost Marshal is to take a post at some accessible headquarters in his district, hire an office, employ two clerks at a compensation of $100 per month, and two or more deputies at the same rate of compensation, and four special officers for the purpose of apprehending deserters, etc., at a compensation of $40 or $60, as to location and business. Each district is to be subdivided by wards in cities and by townships in counties, and one enrolling officer for each subdivision shall be appointed at a compensation of $3 per day of actual service—Federal losses to be preferred for that position when considered to be otherwise suitable. The rules for the medical inspection of the drafted men are lengthy and just, the duty being ordered to be performed with great care, by daylight, in a large and well lighted room, which shall allow the inspected men to walk about naked and very briskly. There are fifty-one diseases specified in the list of disabilities, among which our fat friends will be relieved to know that excessive fleshiness is classed as a disability. The semi-toothless are also exempt, as their condition will not allow them to masticate their food freely or to bite the cartridge, and the regulations further declare that "the cartridge is torn with the canine, bicuspid or incisor teeth"; persons destitute of those dentals are accordingly counted out and may grumble in peace. Every provision for the comfort and convenience of the drafted men is made by the regulations; among other things there is a system of "Soldiers' Rests" provided, by means of which men can be housed and subsisted at the public expense while in transit to headquarters or camps if other means of subsistence are not accessible at reasonable rates. The whole system and plan of the draft has been matured with great care, and we are confident that the wise and far-reaching provisions of the Conscript Bill so enforced, will be met by the public with an alacrity and cheerfulness which will astonish the enemies of the Government and prove to foreign nations as well as to domestic foes, that we can furnish all the men, as well as all of the money, which is needed to put down the rebellion. There will be no draft ordered in California, unless a foreign war or an imperial demonstration on our lower border should make it necessary to raise troops in California.—Sac. Union.

THEATRICAL.—To-night will be presented the "Lady of Lyons," Mr. Waldron as Claude and Miss Mitchell as Pauline. It was the general remark of every one who witnessed a former performance of this beautiful drama by Mr. Waldron and company in this city, that it was never played with greater effect anywhere, and that the representation of the leading characters by Mr. W. and Miss Mitchell was truly splendid and brilliant acting. It will no doubt be equalled this evening. The performance will close with the fine drama of "Bush-rangers, or the Convict's Vengeance."

RECORDER'S COURT.—Business still continues light—closed easy and firm yesterday with two cases. John Kelly and W. C. Tomlinson, instead of saving their money to help celebrate the approaching "Fourth," got drunk and were found sleeping on the side walk, when lodging houses were numerous and charges moderate. They had enough money left, however, to pay a fine each of five dollars and costs, which his Honor imposed.

GRAND TIME.—We judge from the interest already manifested by our citizens, the celebration of the next Fourth in this city will be a magnificent affair, eclipsing anything of the kind ever before had in Oregon. The Committee of Arrangements has gone to work in good earnest in this matter, and will put things through from the start.

FRUIT.—It is the general impression that a greater portion of the early fruit was nipped by the frost, and particularly the cherries. We are informed by fruit growers that such is not the case, and that but very little if any of the fruit is damaged. Mr. Thos. Pritchard informs us that his loss in cherries will not exceed five or six pounds.

WILLAMETTES NO. 1.—At the regular meeting of Willamette Engine Co. No. 1, held last night, they resolved to parade with the rest of the Department on the Fourth. The participation by the firemen will be general.

READ FIRST TIME.—On Wednesday evening an Ordinance was introduced in the Council appropriating $700 for use in celebrating the coming Fourth of July, and read first time.

PASSED.—An Ordinance was passed by the Council on Wednesday evening to define the duties of the Street Commissioner.

DEAD.—John Wood, the comedian, whom many of this city remember, died at Victoria recently, from the effects of an overdose of laudanum, as was supposed.

VOTE OF THANKS.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society, held in this city on the 3d inst., the following resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Society be publicly returned to A. M. Starr, Esq., for the able, efficient, and satisfactory manner in which he performed the trust reposed in him by this Society, in procuring our splendid Banner in New York, and that the artist, Mr. F. StC. Matteson of Shelbourne, N. Y., is deserving of great praise for the skillful manner in which he painted the same.

THOS. M. TEMPLE, Sec'y.

"GREENBACKS."—Few people, perhaps, are aware why the National currency is printed with green backs, therefore, I will explain the reason. Ever since the adoption of a paper currency, it has been the constant study of bank-note engravers to get up some plan of printing bills that could not be counterfeited; in this they only partly succeeded till as late as 1857. A man named Stacy J. Edson, invented a kind of green ink, which he patented June 30th of that year. It is called anti-photographic ink, because it cannot be photographed on account of its color, and cannot be dislodged with alkalies by counterfeiters, to get a complete fac simile of the bills. And as it is a secret only known by the American Bank Note Company, and the inventor, it is impossible to counterfeit the greenback money. It was used by many banks before the war, but was never a leading feature in the bill; but even if the composition of the ink was known, it would be of no use, as the work could not be copied from the genuine bills as with any other kind of ink. The date of the patent can be seen in all the bills in small print.

Edward Everett's assertion in his last Union speech, that the Crittenden compromise of 1861 was a humbug and would not have prevented the rebellion, disturbs all the Copperheads, big and little, from Boston via Washington to Cincinnati and Chicago. They don't think so much of Everett as they did.

The Sioux and Winnebago Indians are to be immediately removed from Minnesota to a tract of land on the Upper Missouri river near Fort Randall, several hundred miles from any white settlement, where they will be permitted the felicity of cutting each other's throats to their hearts' content.

The value of the slaves in Georgia is $230,502,000, or nearly half the amount of the whole taxable value of the State. The value of the land only slightly exceeds $100,000,000. Free those slaves and set them at work at wages, and the value of the land alone were the State at peace, would in a few years exceed the present footing of its entire assessment.

The Queen of Spain and her consort have subscribed $10,000 towards a fund for a monument to Columbus.

THEATRICAL.—To night will be presented the "Lady of Lyons," Mr. Waldron as Claude and Miss Mitchell as Pauline. It was the general remark of every one who witnessed a former performance of this beautiful drama by Mr. Waldron and company, in this city, that it was never played with greater effect anywhere; and that the representation of the leading characters by Mr. W. and Miss Mitchell was truly splendid and brilliant acting. It will no doubt be equalled this evening. The performance will close with the fine drama of "Bush rangers, or the convict's Vengeance."

RECORDER'S COURT.—Business still continues light—closed easy and firm yesterday with two cases. John Kelly and W. C. Tomlinson, instead of saving their money to help celebrate the approaching Fourth, got drunk and were found sleeping on the side-walk, when lodging houses were numerous and charges moderate. They had enough money left, however, to pay a fine each of five dollars and costs, which his Honor imposed.

GRAND TIME.—We judge from the interest already manifested by our citizens, the celebration of the next Fourth in this city will be a magnificent affair, eclipsing anything of the kind ever before had in Oregon. The Committee of Arrangements has gone to work in good earnest in this matter, and will put things through from the start.

FRUIT.—It is the general impression that a greater portion of the early fruit was nipped by the frost, and particularly the cherries. We are informed by fruit-growers that such is not the case, and that but very little if any of the fruit is damaged. Mr. Thos. Pritchard informs us, that his loss in cherries will not exceed five or six pounds.

WILLAMETTES No. 1.—At the regular meeting of Willamette Engine Co. No. 1, held last night, they resolved to parade with the rest of the Department on the Fourth. The participation by the firemen will be general.

READ FIRST TIME.—On Wednesday evening an Ordinance was introduced in the Council appropriating $700 for use in celebrating the coming Fourth of July, and read first time.

PASSED.—An Ordinance was passed by the Council on Wednesday evening, to define the duties of the Street Commissioner.

DEAD.—John Wood, the comedian, whom many of this city remember, died at Victoria recently, from the effects of an overdose of laudanum, as was supposed.

VOTE OF THANKS.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society, held in this city on the 3d inst., the following resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Society be publicly returned to A. M. Starr, Esq., for the able, efficient, and satisfactory manner in which he performed the trust reposed in him by this Society, in procuring our splendid Banner in New York, and that the artist, Mr. F. StC. Matteson of Shelbourne, N. Y., is deserving of great praise for the skillful manner in which he painted the same.

THOS. M. TEMPLE, Sec'y.

"GREENBACKS."—Few people, perhaps, are aware why the National currency is printed with green backs, therefore, I will explain the reason. Ever since the adoption of a paper currency, it has been the constant study of bank-note engravers to get up some plan of printing bills that could not be counterfeited. In this they only partly succeeded till as late as 1857. A man named Stacy J. Edson, invented a kind of green ink, which he patented June 30th, of that year. It is called anti-photographic ink, because it cannot be photographed on account of its color, and cannot be dislodged with alkalies by counterfeiters to get a complete fac simile of the bills. And as it is a secret only known by the American Bank Note Company, and the inventor, it is impossible to counterfeit the greenback money. It was used by many banks before the war, but was never a leading feature in the bill; but even if the composition of the ink was known, it would be of no use, as the work could not be copied from the genuine bills as with any other kind of ink. The date of the patent can be seen in all the bills in small print.

Edward Everett's assertion in his last Union speech, that the Crittenden compromise of 1861 was a humbug, and would not have prevented the rebellion, disturbs all the Copperheads, big and little, from Boston via Washington to Cincinnati and Chicago. They don't think so much of Everett as they did.

The Sioux and Winnebago Indians are to be immediately removed from Minnesota to a tract of land on the Upper Missouri river, near Fort Randall, several hundred miles from any white settlement, where they will be permitted the felicity of cutting each other's throats to their hearts' content.

The value of the slaves in Georgia is $231,502,000, or nearly half the amount of the whole taxable value of the State. The value of the land only slightly exceeds $100,000,000. Free those slaves and set them at work at wages, and the value of the land alone, were the State at peace, would in a few years exceed the present footing of its entire assessment.

The Queen of Spain and her consort have subscribed $10,000 towards a fund for a monument to Columbus.

Vig. H. & L. Co. No. 1.—Special meeting this Friday evening, June 5th, 1863, at 7½ o'clock precisely. A full attendance is desirable.

DR. D. JAYNE'S
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, (and there is no place in the civilized globe where they have not been sold) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in relieving complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates Immediately upon the Disease,

SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT, while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

UPPER UWCHLAND, Chester Co, Pa, Sept 15, 1858.

Dr. D. JAYNE—I was long been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief to my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months I was entirely cured.

NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 15, 1860.

L. W. TINELLI, Esq., New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion, I began the well known, but not enough known, "EXPECTORANT" of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.

I am now, quite another man, and my general health has never been better.

I remain, my dear Tinelli, with esteem, your servant and friend,

J. M. MONTE.

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co. O., May 31, 1860.

Dr. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well.

J. H. HOFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co, Pa, July 21, 1858.

Dr. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day.

JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true;

MERRY, WILHELM & CO.

For a greater number and variety of certificates and fuller information regarding these and other of Dr D. Jayne and Sons' Preparations, reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicines.

A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money; but if you want either for your own use, you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

LADD & WEBSTER'S

use a straight needle: curved ones are liable to break.

They make a tight lock-stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.

Every machine is sent from our office threaded, and with work under the needle, ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

The subscribers have the General Agency of THESE SUPERIOR MACHINES for the Pacific Coast.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Arming the Negroes—What the Soldiers Say About It.—The Wisconsin State Journal correspondent gives the following report of the proceedings at Helena, Arkansas, on the 6th inst., after Adjutant General Thomas had announced his mission, and the orders of the Government to arm the negroes:

Major General B. M. Prentiss, after the cheering had subsided which greeted his appearance, indorsed in a forcible and eloquent speech the policy announced by Adjutant Gen. Thomas, and said that "upon the time when he was a prisoner, and a negro sentinel with firm step, beat in front of his cell, and with firmer voice commanded silence within, he prayed God for the day of revenge, and he now thanked God that it had come." Turning to Gen. Thomas the speaker continued:—"Yes! tell the President for me, I will receive them in the lines—I will beg them to come in—I will make them come in! and if any officer in my command, high or low, neglects to receive them friendly and treat them kindly, I will put him outside the lines. [Tremendous applause.] Soldiers, when you go to your quarters, if you hear any one condemning the policy announced here to-day, put him down as a contemptible Copperhead traitor. Call them what you please, Copperheads, Secesh, or traitors, they are all the same to me: enemies of our country, against whom, I have taken a solemn oath, and called God as my witness, to whip them wherever I found them."

Mr. Mitchell, a Member of Congress from Indiana, next spoke, indorsing what had been said, and concluded by paying his respects to the Copperheads, and declaring that he was going home to labor to fill up the decimated ranks of the regiments before him.

Brig. Gen. Alvin P. Hovey was then called out. Though a life-long Democrat he said he fully approved of the policy of the Administration in using the negroes. He would go a step further, and prohibit all commerce with the rebels, and hang every Yankee, Jew, or Copperhead found trading with them. He would burn all the cotton found, and, if possible, kill the seed forever. It was the curse of the Union, and the great curse of the army. Let bayonets, not commerce, follow the flag until rebels submit. In concluding, he said if he lived to see the permanent separation of the Union, he would tear the record leaf from the family Bible and never own that his children were born in Indiana.

Col. Cameron of the 34th Indiana, in response to a call, next spoke, and made some excellent points. He had enlisted for twenty-five years, and did not want a forlough till his time was out or the rebels were whipped. If our twenty millions could not whip their eight millions, he wanted to surrender his life with the Union.

Col. C. R. Gill of the 29th Wisconsin was brought out by the shouts and cries for him. He said he believed it was good for him to be here. He felt as good over it as a Methodist ever did over a love-feast. But, like a Methodist, he must repent of his sins. There had been a time since he had been at Helena when he was demoralized, but he now felt strong in the cause. The commerce our noble General had spoken of had done more to injure the Union cause than this whole army has done to help it. When at Friar's Point and in the country he had seen loads of cavalry boots, salt, quinine, &c., conveyed to the rebels. This fighting an enemy with the little finger and feeding him with the other nine is an unequal game. Stop this infernal traffic, and it will be as good as a half million men in the field. In regard to arming the negroes, he felt as Aunt Hannah did at the funeral of her husband: The coffin was opened, and the friends took a departing look, after which the minister raised the lid of the coffin and asked, "Are you all satisfied?" whereupon Aunt Hannah interposed as follows: "Elder Tinkham, I am perfectly satisfied." He then turned to the assemblage and inquired how many were satisfied, and was answered by a mighty yea, swelled by thousands of voices. How many are there here who are not satisfied? A profound silence was the only reply, and turning to the General the Colonel said: "The verdict is unanimous. When you go back tell the President he is indorsed by the army, and that there is power in the army."

Gen. Washburne, Col. Bussey and Captain Cameron also spoke. The meeting broke up, giving three mighty cheers for the policy of the Administration. Gen. Thomas arose and said this was the happiest day of his life, and he should be happy to make known to the President the feeling prevailing among the troops within the sound of his voice.

The foregoing gives but a faint idea of the enthusiasm, patriotism, and outpouring of loyalty that took place on this occasion.

What Edward Everett Thinks.—In his recent address before the Boston Union Club, Edward Everett said:

Towards the successful prosecution of the war every good citizen is bound to contribute to the utmost by word and deed, by personal service, if of age to render it, by his council, with his purse, if need be with his life. If he can do nothing else, let him at least speak words of patriotic cheer, seeking to inspire the community with confidence, to strengthen the arm of the Government in the discharge of its arduous duties, and to animate our brave fellow-citizens in the ranks of the army. What we now want is not so much strength in the field as union at home; or rather till we have cordial union at home, we never shall have overwhelming strength in the field. Do not, for Heaven's sake, let us re-enact the fatal blunder that has been committed by free States since the dawn of history. The strength of Philip of Macedon was in the divided councils of the Greeks. Do not let the strength of the rebellion be in the want of harmony in the loyal States.

But it may be asked, how can men support the Administration in the conduct of the war if they do not approve its measures? How, I ask in return, can any free government carry on a war, if every one is to stand aloof, who does not approve all measures? That the war must be carried on till the rebellion is subdued is the all but unanimous sentiment of the loyal States. It is as much the interest of the South as of the North to hasten this consummation, for she suffers infinitely more than the North by the continuance of the war, and there can be no return to a state of general and permanent prosperity on any other condition. That errors will be committed, errors of judgment certainly, errors of purpose perhaps, on the part of individuals, is sure to happen in all wars. Commanders of armies, members of Cabinets, members of Congress, Generals, Secretaries and Presidents, are fallible men, subject to like passions as we are. I do not at all deny that it is our right and duty to watch and criticise their conduct, but we must not forget that critics, editors and orators are also fallible. While we sit in quiet and safety by our firesides, and inveigh against those who [illegible] burden of the day, who carry [illegible] their shoulders the thankless burden [illegible] duty, and the heavy responsi[illegible] which often depend on the elements [illegible] casualties beyond human control, we must [illegible] in mind that we also have our interests, our prejudices, and our passions, and that it is much easier to find fault than to pursue the course of conduct which will escape censure in a fault finding community. There are two ways of doing everything; and when duty constrains us to find fault with the short comings of our rulers and our generals, we should, if possible, do it in such a manner as not to give aid and comfort to the rulers and generals of the enemy.

Wee Lillie's Victory.—There was a man—a widower—seeking, in a beautiful and interesting girl of twenty, a companion for himself, and a mother for his three little ones. To this arrangement the young lady herself was not averse, but her mother would not consent. The suitor himself was in every respect all that could be asked, but the experienced woman dreaded for her daughter the responsibilities and trials of the relation of step-mother. So she resolved to make her heart—as noble and tender a one as woman ever had—as the very flint against all arguments and pleadings, and to chill the incipient affair by icy coldness. Thus stood the matter, when the gentleman, in pursuance of his cherished plan, made his appearance on the field of action, bringing as aids—"since pity is akin to love"—his three sweet little girls with him. The good mother saw the peril, but sternly set her mind not to be caught in that trap. So she wrapped herself in a cloak of ceremonious civility, and let the little visitors sit about or play unnoticed. It was not long before wee Lillie, the youngest of the three, having picked up a doll, had become absorbed in fondling and dressing it, as the custom is with small women. Presently something went wrong; the frock or cloak refused to stay as it was put. So Lillie gathered herself from the carpet, and trotting up to Mrs. ——, as she sat in her dignified indifference, looked up into her face with the most innocent unconsciousness that she was not entirely welcome, and in her sweet lisping tones asked, "Ave yoo dot a pin?" O, wise little simpleton! Thou hast done the work. Tears swelled into the lady's eyes; all her fortifications melted away like wax in the sun; she caught the motherless baby to her bosom, and from that moment the young widower had it all his own way.

Mrs. Partington on Weddings.—It is a solemn thing, is matrimony, a very solemn thing, where the minister comes into the chancery with his surplus on, and goes through the ceremony of making them man and wife. It ought to be husband and wife for it isn't every husband that turns out to be a man. I declare I never shall forget when Paul put the nuptial ring on my finger and said, "with my goods I thee endow." He used to keep a dry goods store then, and I thought he was going to give me the whole there was in it. I was young and simple, and didn't know till afterwards that it only meant one calico gown a year. It is a lovely sight to see people "plighting the trough," as the song says, and coming up to consume their vows.

Get Married.—Jeremy Taylor says, if you are for pleasure, marry; if you prize rosy health, marry. A good wife is Heaven's last best gift to man; an angel of mercy; minister of graces innumerable; his gem of many virtues; his casket of jewels; her voice, his sweetest music; her smiles, his brightest day; her kiss, the guardian of innocence; her arms, the pale of his safety, the balm of his health, the balsam of his life; her industry, his surest wealth; her economy, his safest steward; her lips, his faithful counsellor; her bosom, the softest pillow of his cares, and her prayers, the ablest advocates of Heaven's blessings on his head.

LEGAL.

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business; but no farmer, merchant, mechanic, or any person, has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year. And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks, interest, &c., (they having already paid the income tax,) are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may, outside of his business, spend all and even more than his profits in the business; nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And so with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May, 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863. And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June, as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
